

Far away ,beyond the Mercurian sea lies the kingdom of Colorville .

The kingdom was known to the world as the most colorfull place

People here adored colors and are always happy

But , Their happy days were about to end

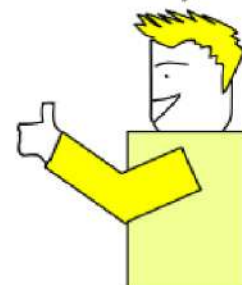

(horror music in the background)

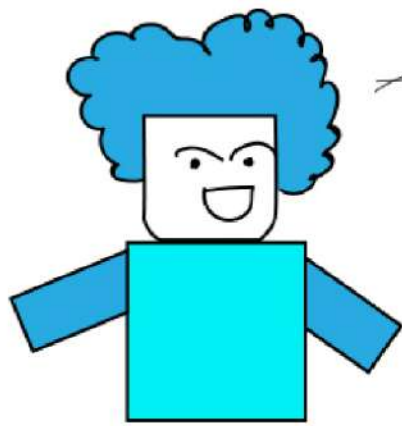

Centrozaan , the evil lord...who was cursed and sealed away for 12000 years has returned from exile... He was on his way to conquer Colorville and then ,,,,THE WORLD(again , horror music in the background).

Villagers of Colorville, Kneel before your new king

cool costume dude

Dude ....R you
Ticktoker?..heheeee

There are two more months for Halloween,,heheeee

How dare you mock me
you worthless humans.....
i will teach u a lesson

LOL

what a clown this guy is nuts

jeem boo baaa....
doubidy doobydooo wookydockygooooo (magic spell, never mind)

what is he doing

What is happening

Winds started blowing heavily followed by thunder...Out of nowhere a tornado formed and started to suck colors into it.

Now who is laughing.....

HA HA Ha....

This guy is a monster...run...

Aa....

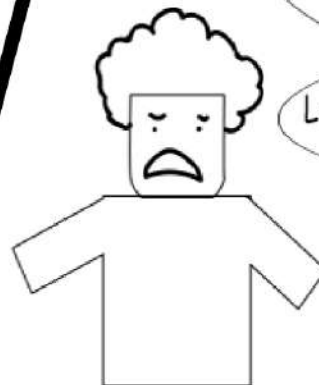

Help!!!

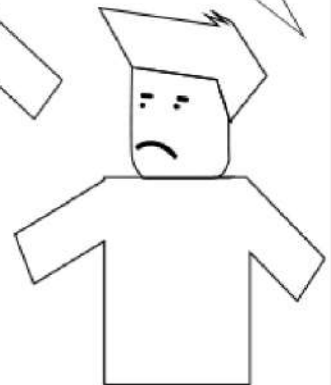

Every color in Colorville was sucked into the tornado...
Everything became dull and colorless. Villagers became very upset...they did not know what to do.

What will we do now.
I don't want to live in such a colorless world

Let's ask king for help

The king became so angry..He gathered troops and went to fight Centrozaan.

How dare
you do something like this to my village and my people

FREEZE

Centrozaan froze the king using his dark magic powers..Rest of Colorville got frightened watching this. They started running for their lives..some of the villagers tried to escape from the village ,but's it's then they realised that their colourless bodies are trapped inside the colorless village. Everyone went into hiding..... days and weeks passed by.....One day

Come on guys..... Let's go check it out .....

I am Amal

Hi...
I am Christy

I am Melwin

And I am Nirmal.

We call ourselves

THE DANGER BOYS

Puff

Out of nowhere, an angel appeared in front of them.

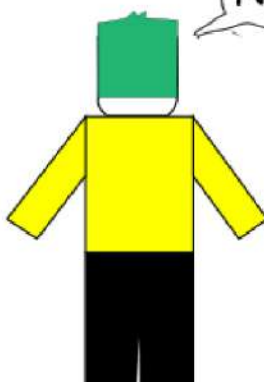

HELLO!!...
I am Hacky.
Angel Hacky

WOW

An angel?

No way..!

Hello...are you guys the 'flow' sages.

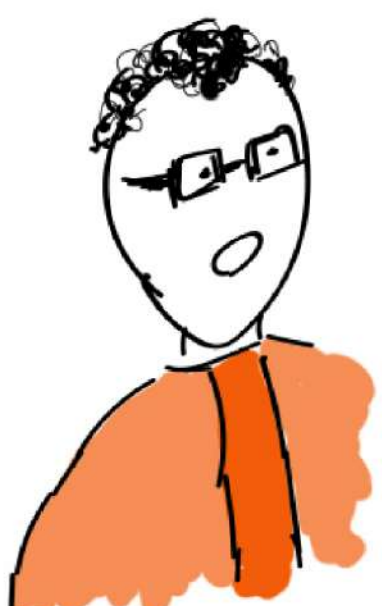

Yes...Yes we are.
I am Morgan

And..I am Jacob

Are you guys meditating.
How do you float on air like that?

Well...actually..we were in the middle of our 'DEVELOPER HOURS'.
it is the time of the day when we meditate and develop our minds

I came to guide you on your journey to save the village.

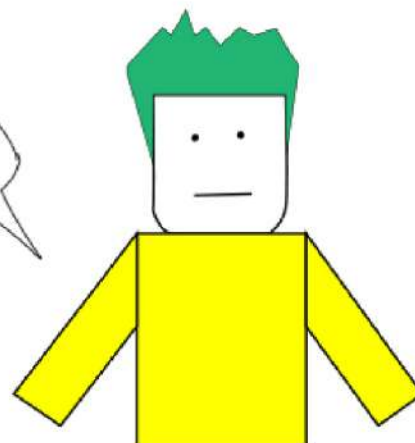

But why would you do that

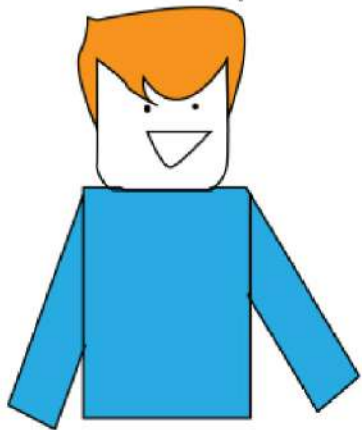

Because I am an angel and I do good things for free.

Duh!!!

So....angel, what should we do now?
We don't have any magical powers to fight centrozaan.

Since you have magical powers, you should easily be able to defeat him.

No.... I am sorry. My only superpower is to "guide" people

What are we supposed to do now?

Guys...listen...Travel East.
Deep down the Merkle tree forest, you will be able to find the 'Flow' sages. They will be able to help you.

After saying this, the angel disappeared into the air.

The villager tells them about everything that happened there and asks for their help.

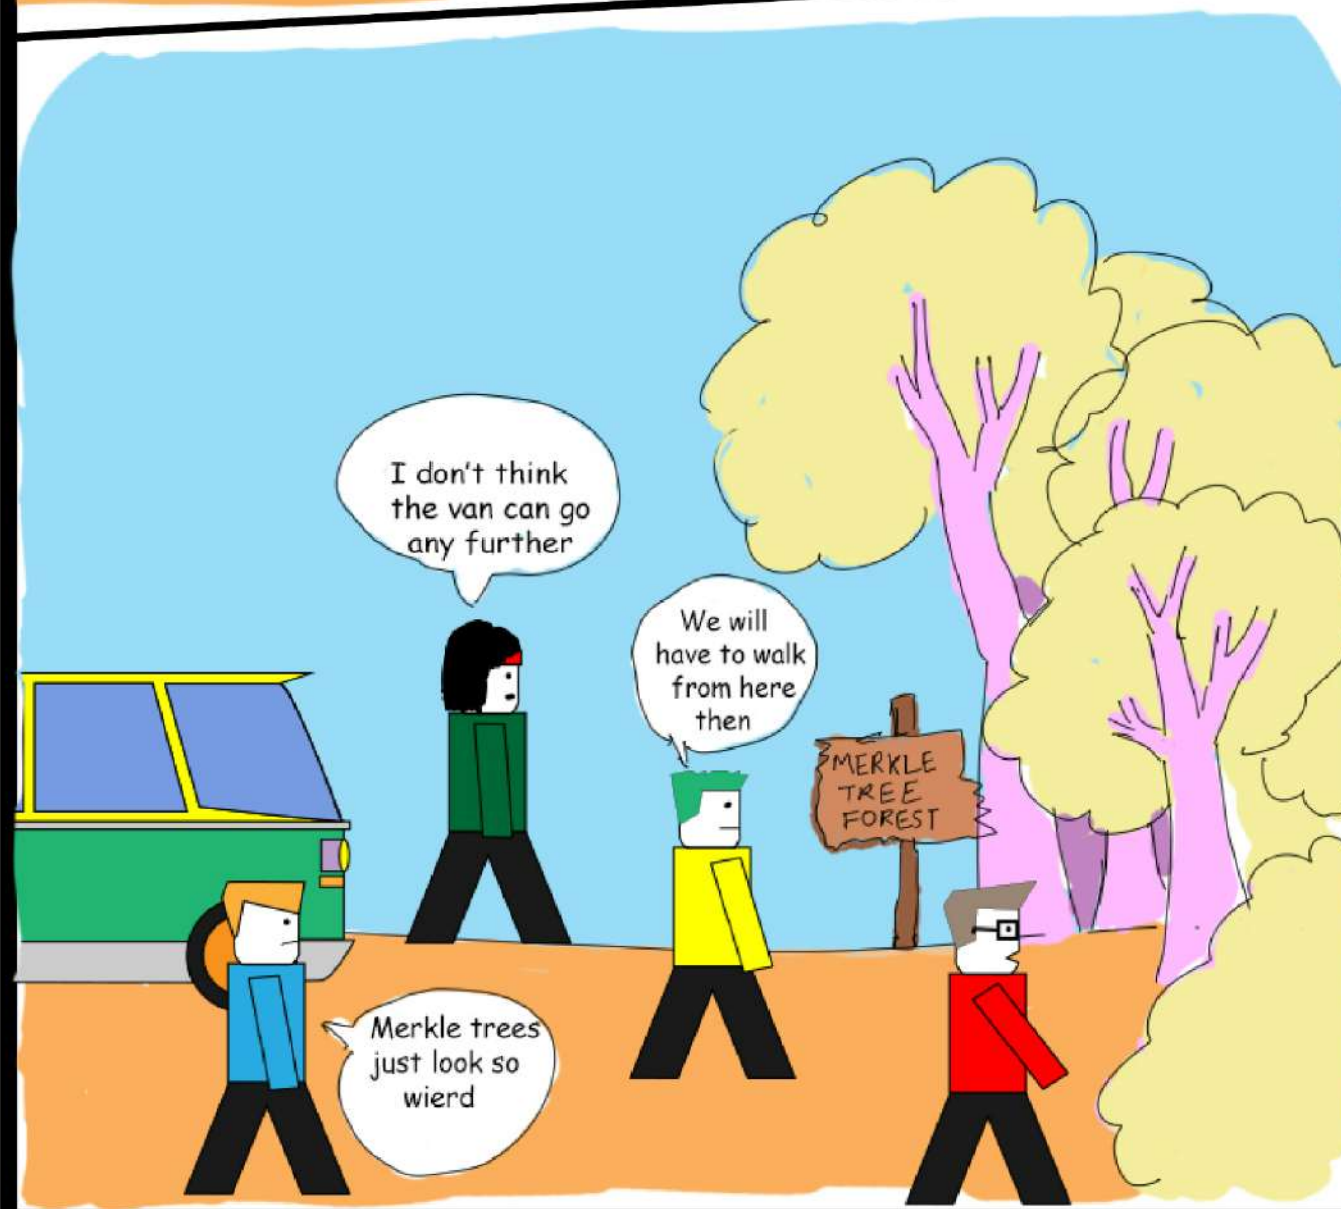

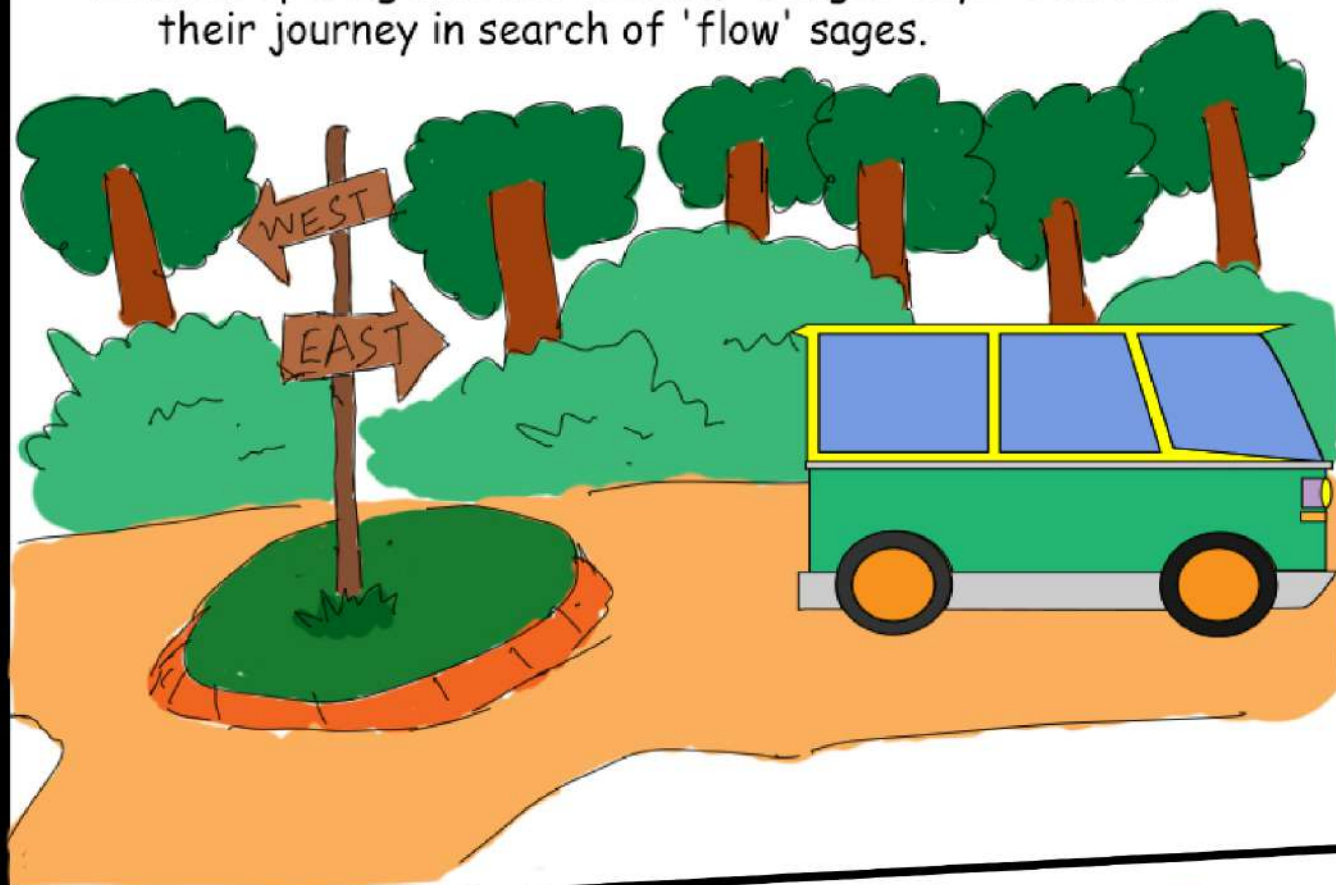

' Danger Boys', who were looking for opportunities to get famous and go viral, found this as a chance and agreed to help. They left the village in search of a solution to save the village and villagers from Centrozaan.

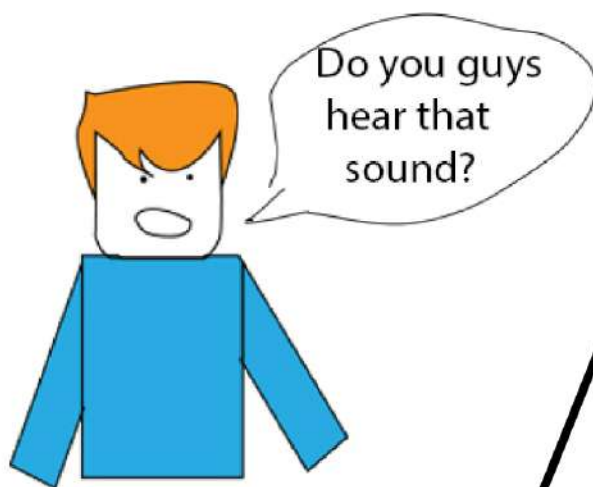

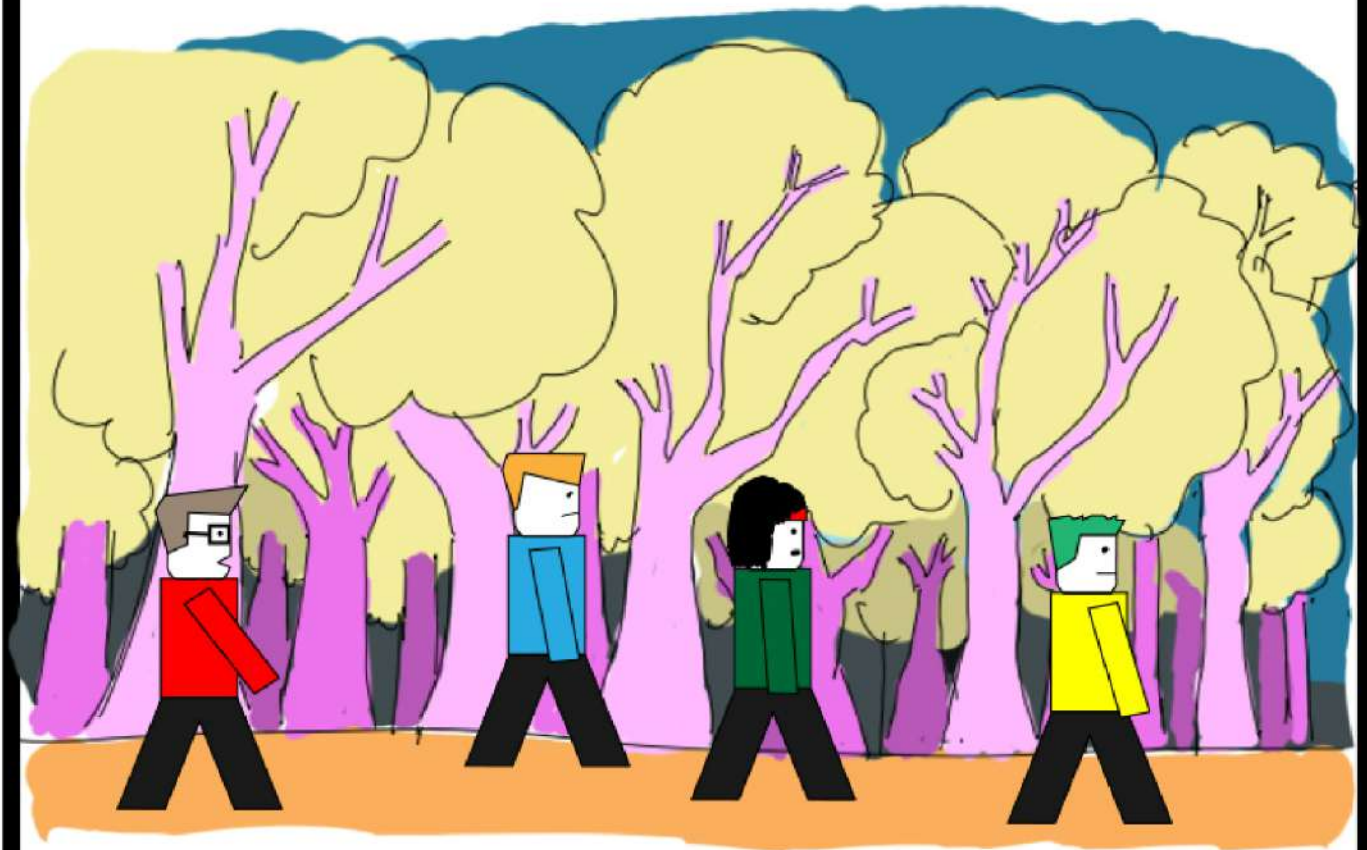

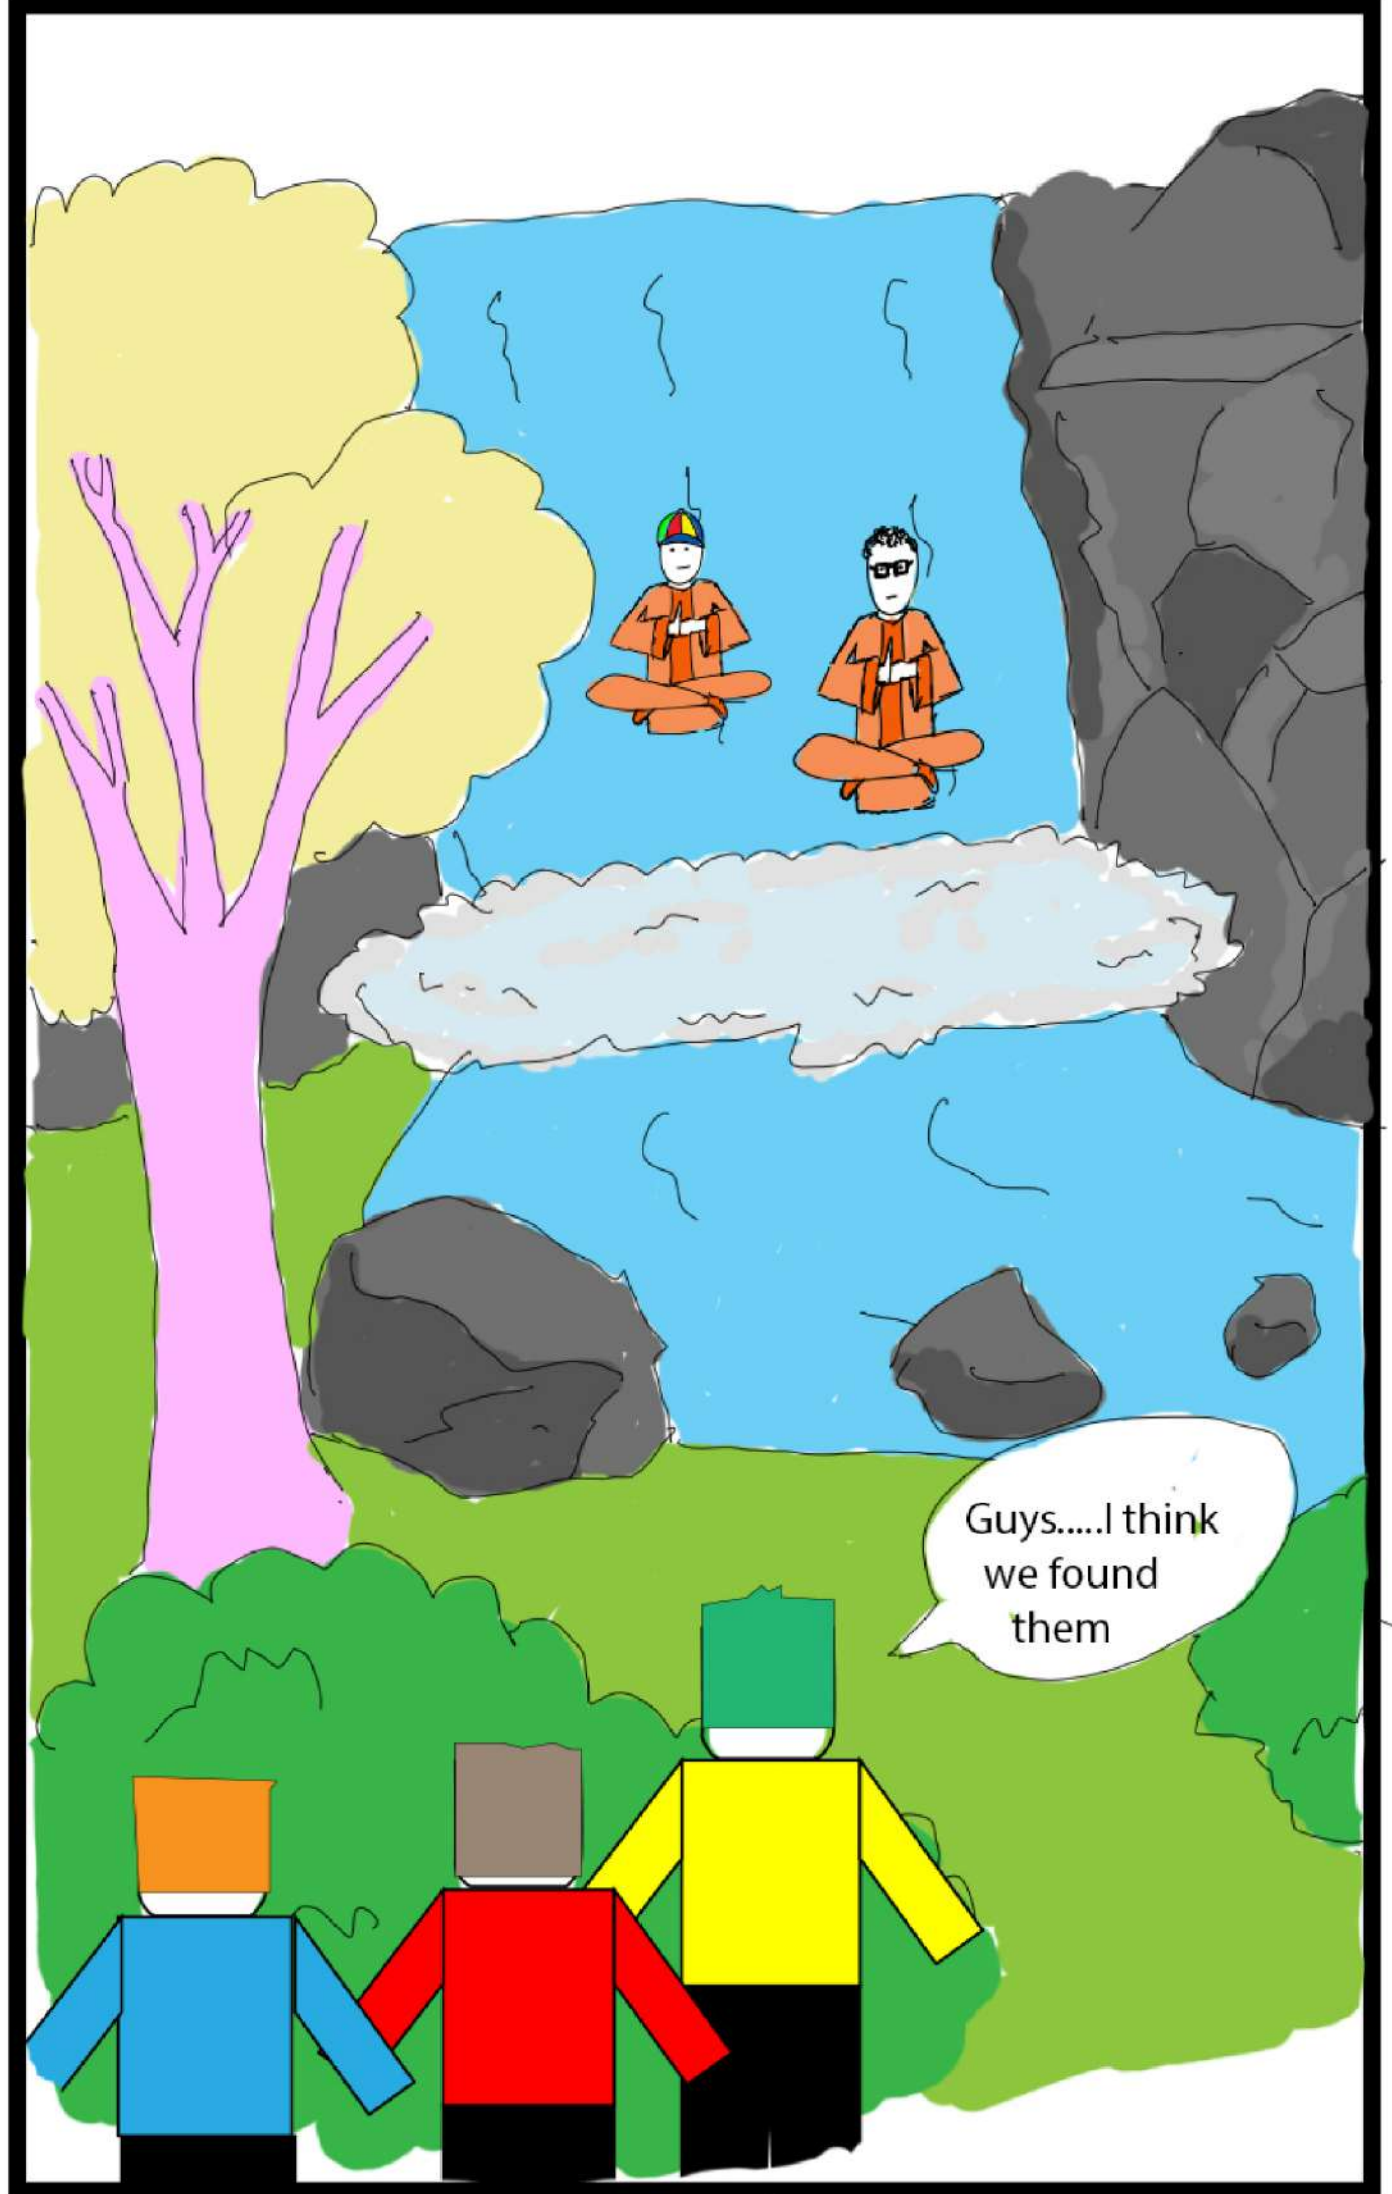

Without sparing another second, 'Danger boys' started their journey in search of 'flow' sages.

'DANGER BOYS' wandered through the forest in search of 'Flow' sages.

Guys....I think we found them

What bring you guys here

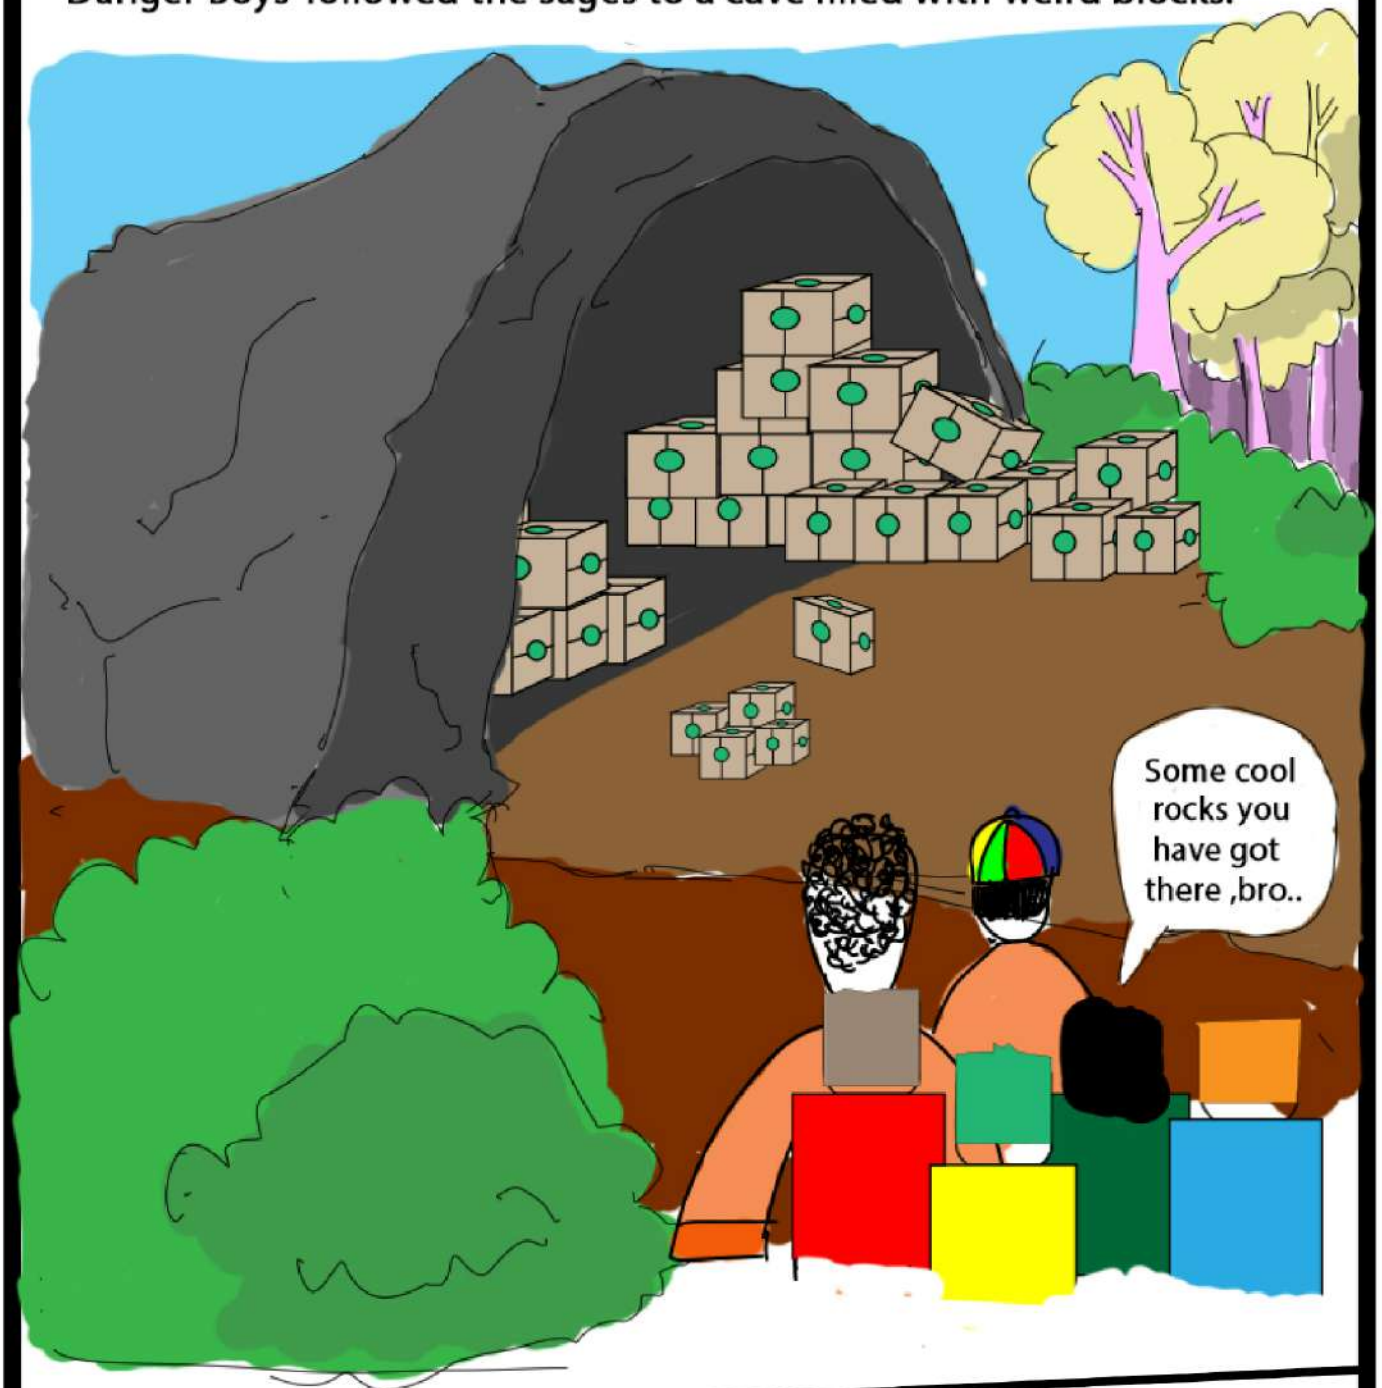

'Danger Boys' tells the sages about Centrozaan and what he did to the village. They also sought the help of sages to save the village.

Follow me guys.

'Danger Boys' followed the sages to a cave filled with weird blocks.

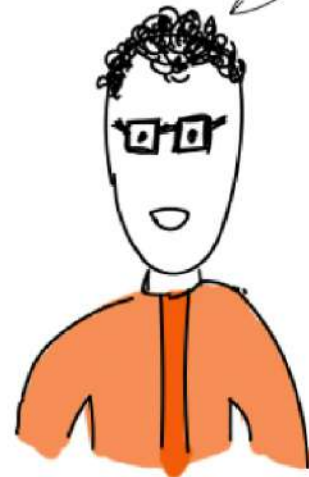

These are no ordinary blocks. These are made from Decenta-stones with the power of flow... These blocks will help you deal with Centrozaan. Place them in different houses within the kingdom.. These stones have the power to bring back dreams and colors....

How will we take these blocks back to the village

You guys are underestimating us

Abra -cadabra woobdy dooby doo portalooo mortaatooo potatoo..

(Magic spell..LOL)

This portal will teleport you to the kingdom

The 'DANGER BOYS' started delivering the Decenta-stone blocks to the villagers.

After all the blocks were delivered, the sages started chanting a spell to activate the magical contract.

What is happening to me...!!!
I feel like my powers weakening..

Centrozaan goes BOOM...and ....Colors and dreams of the people are restored....Happiness spreads throughout the village once again...
